

Cohasset Marine

Cohasset Free
Public Library
Cohasset, Mass. 02025

87501
Paul Pratt Memorial
Attn: Richard E. Hayes
106 South Main St.
Cohasset, Ma. 02025

vol. I, no. 35

thursday, may 31, 1979

25

Seniors Number 128

High School Graduation On Sunday

Cohasset High School's class of 1979 numbering 128 seniors will graduate on Sunday, June 3 at the South Shore Music Circus at 3 p.m.

Superintendent of Schools John Maloney will present the class of graduation then diplomas will be presented by John Langmaid, Chairman of the School Committee.

Awards to the National Honor Society and to National Merit Scholars will be presented by Richard Streeter, High School Principal.

The address of welcome will be given by Senior Class President Darlynn O'Neill who is also salutatorian and will address the crowd in that capacity, also. Valedictorian is Jennifer Jones.

Invocation will be offered by Reverend Richard Muir of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and John Smith will lead the national anthem. An interlude by the high school band, 'Chorale and Festival March' will be played for the seniors processional and recession. Lynn O'Toole, president of the junior class will the procession.

Senior class officers are president, Darlynn O'Neill; vice-president, Matthew Salerno; secretary, Lawrence Evans and treasurer Barbara Taylor.

Members of the National Honor Society are: Robert Baird, Jonathan Foell, Arthur Glasfeld, Leslie Jones, Brian Keane, Christopher MacKenzie, Diane Maloney, Darlynn O'Neill, Pamela Russell and Mark Young.

Graduating seniors are:

Karen Elizabeth Ainslie, Robert White Baird, Joseph Charles Barrow, Robert J. Barrow, Barry Joseph Buckley, Marianne Burke, Gerda Maria Cahill, Claire Marie Carey, Lauren Carroll, Peter Allan Chapman, Jr., *Chun Chan, Douglas Sherman Clark, Myles Daniel Collins, Chris John Colocousis, Brian Patrick Conlan, Peter Llewellyn Cook, Lynn Maura Clarke Crough, Ann Joyce Crowley, Barbara Ann Curelli, Polly Jean Curley, Andrea Maxine Davie, Linda Joyce Deignan, Kimberly Anne Diab, Alison Gilbert Dickson, Charles Marshall Dillon, Brad Michael Ditmar,

[turn to page 3]

MEMORIAL DAY rites found Veterans marching from North Cohasset Cemetery and the actual ceremonies themselves at the gravesites.

[Greg Derr photos]

Employee Status To Remain, Thaxter

Town Counsel J. Blake Thaxter ruled last week that the special municipal employee status designated to many town officials in 1962 should remain in effect. Selectmen had questioned the applicability of that status today and asked for the ruling.

Thaxter said in a letter to Selectmen that the special status was made by the then board to maintain some uniformity with other towns. "In my opinion it would be inappropriate to now change the designations," he said.

Prior to the action being taken by the then Selectmen, Thaxter explained, many meetings were held by the state Town Counsel Association and determined which boards would be special and which would not. Special municipal status exempts town employees from certain sections of the conflict of interest law.

It was agreed by the town counsels, Thaxter said, that a list of the newly

[turn to page 3]

Further Probe Of Sawchuk Operation

By Judith Epstein

Seventy-nine Atlantic Trust developers are seeking the final approval to install a multiple disposal system — the first of its kind in Cohasset — at their breathtaking 18-acre property overlooking Sandy Cove.

The application and granting of a special permit for the proposed multiple system with the Board of Appeals hasn't been an easy road for the trust for many reasons. Their final decision is still forthcoming.

Since plans to develop the former Elizabeth Bigelow Estate were first submitted in October 1978, permission from the Planning Board to subdivide and approval from the Board of Appeals, the Conservation Commission and the state Department of Environmental Quality Engineering to install a new water main, two fire hydrants, gas service and resurface the existing driveway came rather easily.

However, the multiple "cluster" disposal system to be constructed in the flood plain and watershed protection district raised various new questions for the Board of Appeals to consider. Again the Conservation Commission, the Board of Health and

[turn to page 2]